16 v.

17 Equifax Information Services, LLC et
18 al.,

19 Defendants.

Case No.: 2:22-cv-01338-RFB-VCF

Stipulation to extend deadline to file the ~~proposed~~ discovery plan and scheduling order

(First request)

20 Shawn Walker (“Plaintiff”) and CoreLogic Credco, LLC, CarMax Auto 21 Superstores, Inc., 1st United Credit Union, Capital One, N.A. (erroneously sued as 22 Capital One Services, LLC), Ally Financial, Inc., and Trans Union, LLC
23 (“Defendants”) (jointly as the “parties”), by and through their respective counsel, 24 hereby stipulate to extend Local Rule 26-1’s deadlines for the parties to hold their 25 initial Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) conference and to file their proposed discovery plan and 26 scheduling order (the “Deadlines”).

27 Good cause exists to extend the Deadlines. The Parties need additional time for counsel to coordinate to set the discovery conference. The nature of Plaintiff’s claims (involving allegations of identity theft) and the amount of defendants named in this action require additional time to develop a suitable discovery plan. Additionally, the Parties are engaged in active settlement discussions that may alleviate the need to submit a proposed discovery plan. Therefore, it is appropriate to extend the deadlines for the Parties to file their proposed discovery plan and scheduling order to allow time for the Parties to meet and confer in compliance with Local Rule 26-1(b).

Parties therefore request to extend the Deadlines by 30 days, making the new deadline for the submission of a stipulated discovery plan and scheduling order on November 24, 2022. This is the first request for an extension of this deadline.

Dated: October 24, 2022.
